

YOUNG SCIENTIST CONCLAVE

(CALL FOR PAPERS)

INDIA INTERNATIONAL SCIENCE FESTIVAL – 2016

7th – 11th December, 2016 at NPL, New Delhi

With a range of topics important to spread scientific temper among young scientist papers are invited from Young Scientists, researchers, innovators, academicians, teachers and scholars. Young Scientists' Conclave is the key component of IISF - 2016 would focus on presentation of technical papers and posters. The themes identified are as follows:

-  Digital India (Information Technology)
-  Make in India (Design and Manufacturing Technologies)
-  Swachh Bharat (Environment)
-  Swastha Bharat (integrated health care including Innovative Diagnostic Aids)
-  Smart City
-  Innovative Agriculture Practices & Livestock Management
-  Namami Gange (Water Resources and Management)
-  Sustainable Development and Cleaner Production
-  Green Energy
-  Indigenous Science & Technology
-  Waste to Wealth
-  Materials for Sustainable Development
-  Strategic Applications
-  Green Synthesis and Cleaner Production

IISF - 2016 would provide an effective platform for the scientific interaction and have targets to involve and include commoners with a view to improve their scientific understanding, knowledge and temperament for these initiatives and appreciation for various feats in science & technology.

IISF - 2016 also has targets to showcase innovative practices among the youth and achievements by Indian science & technology system.

The Highlights of IISF – 2016 are:

-  Plenary Lectures
-  Technology Demonstrations by Young Scientists
-  Scientific Workshop and pavilions
-  Opportunity for Networking

Read more about IISF – 2016 at: www.scienceindiafest.org